Crash

Jess Davids Glass

3D

Inspired by a trip to Cape Verde, where she was mesmerised by her surroundings. Jess Davids' designs originate from a fascination with the ocean and the powerful forces of nature. The waves rise, fall and crash as it reshapes the land to its will. She imagines these motions as she applies her design to the pieces. Drawn to the sea, with red flags that warn of danger, recreating the exhilaration of working with glass.
