glass

I create useful, wearable, affordable pieces which bring colour and functionality to your life. My pieces need to feel nice as well as look appealing and I never tire of experimenting and learning more about this wonderful material.

Artist Bio

I have been working with glass for nearly 20 years and turned my hobby into my business 12 years ago. I now work predominantly with glass fusing but also love having the opportunity to create and repair traditional stained glass windows as well. About 6 years ago I started leading making sessions to introduce other people to the wonderful creative opportunity of working with glass and now run these regularly from my studio, galleries and universities in the region.
