A city networking event for creative companies will open its doors to all businesses this week.

This week is Global Entrepreneurship Week. And to celebrate, the Leicester Creative Business Depot is issuing an open invitation to its Café Creatif networking event on Thursday, from 11am.

Kate Cowan, depot enterprise support manager, said: "Our monthly networking events are always informal and attended by an exciting mix of people.

"As part of the week we'll open our doors to people who might not work in the creative industry, but might find it useful to contact some of our thriving creative businesses, in a relaxed atmosphere."
